

5.1 Demographic Groups in Canada

Demography	Baby Bust	Suburbia	Sexual Revolution
Baby Boom	War Bride	Authoritarian Education	Materialism
Echo Boom	Birth Rate	Progressive Education	Political Activism
Generation Z	Nuclear Family	Counterculture	The Pill

Use each of the definitions in the box to complete the sentences. These definitions will be used throughout Chapter 5.

1. Oral birth control contraceptives first developed during the 1960's _____
2. _____ is the study of human populations.
3. _____ was a large group of people in society that expressed values and behaviours that conflicted with societies norms.
4. The period of declining birth rates between 1966-1979, immediately after the post-World War II baby boom is known as _____
5. New residential areas built beyond the existing built-up area of a city is known as _____
6. The _____ is a demographic phase marked by an increase in the birth rate of a country, and a corresponding population increase.
7. _____ is movements for political change that focus on public activities such as marches, demonstrations, media events and petitions
8. The demographic phase in which a population increase is created as people born during the post WWII baby boom have their own children is known as _____
9. A _____ is a term for European wives of Canadian soldiers who came to Canada with their husbands after WWII.
10. A fairly strict teacher centered form of education, strongly focused on student mastery of traditional subject matter is known as _____
11. _____ is a more child centered form of education based on the assumption that students are eager to learn material presented in an interesting way.
12. _____ is the belief that technological and economic factors are the most important ones in moulding a society

13. A time during the late 1960's and early 1970's when sexual behaviour and morals changed dramatically is called _____
14. A _____ is a family group consisting only of a mother and father living with their children
15. _____ is a term used for children born after the mid 1990's, some of them offspring of the so called Twentysomethings demographic group.
16. The _____ is the average number of births per thousand people in a country during a particular year.